

Inter-School Handball Competition

Duties of Centre in-charge

Teachers of participating schools please study the followings carefully regarding duties of centre-in-charge. They will serve as centre in-charge during the competition period & therefore they must be familiar with the rights & duties of being Centre-in-charge.

1. The teacher in-charge of the HOME Team of the first match is the Centre in-charge and is kindly requested to bring score sheets to the referee; teacher of the AWAY Team of the first match will also receive score sheets by mail and please bring along the score sheets to the court as spare copies. All score sheets will be collected by the referee and revert to the Federation.
2. Should the appointed referees fail to turn up within 5 minutes (changed from 10 minutes) of the scheduled starting time of a match, the teachers-in-charge of the teams concerned shall arrange between themselves a referee to officiate the game. Failure to do so may lead to a double walkover and no replay shall be arranged.
